Foot Pursuit near US 395 and Adjacent Trailer Park Results in Arrest

Last evening at approximately 10:39 pm, a trooper with the Nevada Highway Patrol conducted a traffic enforcement stop on a white 2000 Kia 4-door sedan for not having any visible registration.

The traffic stop took place on the northbound on ramp to US 395 at the Moana Lane interchange. The trooper made contact with the male driver and male passenger.

While talking to both occupants of the vehicle, the trooper detected an obvious odor of marijuana coming from inside the sedan. The driver produced a valid driver's license while the passenger could not produce any form of identification. He verbally stated that his name was Jamarcus Russell and provided a date of birth. When the trooper was unable to locate a positive match in our data base system for Russell, he asked him to exit the vehicle. Two other troopers had just arrived at the scene.

The suspect exited the car and immediately fled away from the scene on foot. One trooper stayed with the vehicle while the other two troopers began to chase the suspect on foot. They saw the subject trip and fall and then heard a metal-like object hit the ground. The subject grabbed the item which led the pursuing troopers to believe the subject may be armed with a handgun. The subject resumed running away and entered the northwest corner of the Star Light Trailer Park.

By now additional troopers and officers from the Reno Police Department were responding to the location. A perimeter of the trailer park was set up and a K-9 unit soon located the subject hiding under a staircase to a mobile home. The suspect was taken into custody and an identification card was located on his person. He was properly identified as 21-year-old Calvin Earl Golden of Reno.

Additionally, a handgun was located in close proximity to Mr. Golden. After a wants and records check was completed, we learned that Golden had an active misdemeanor warrant charging him with Domestic Battery issued by the Reno Justice Court on August 12, 2010. He was transported to the Washoe County Detention Facility and booked on the following charges:

- Obstructing/Delaying a police officer
- Resisting arrest
- Possession of Marijuana-less than 1 ounce
- Possession of drug paraphernalia
- Possession of a concealed weapon
- Misdemeanor warrant

Golden is still in custody this morning at the jail with a total bail amount of $8,147 dollars.

The driver of the motor vehicle was not charged with any crime.
