Capitol Police Conduct a Full Scale Emergency Preparedness Exercise

On Wednesday, November 14, 2012, from 8:00 AM until approximately 11:00 AM, The Department of Public Safety - Capitol Police Division will be conducting a full scale exercise of its emergency preparedness at the State Capitol. The exercise will involve all employees assigned to the Nevada State Capitol. The Capitol building will be closed to the general public while this exercise is held.

In September, the staff of the Capitol performed an emergency evacuation drill, in October, an earthquake drill was held and this exercise completes the three part employee safety training.

During the exercise, a safety perimeter will be maintained by the Nevada Highway Patrol and Carson City Sheriffs deputies. There will be a presence of emergency vehicles from the Carson City area directly related and involved with the exercise.

What: Capitol Emergency Preparedness Exercise

Where: Nevada State Capitol, 101 N. Carson Street, Carson City Nevada 89701

When: Wednesday, November 14th, 2012

Time: 8:00 AM – 11:00 AM

POC: Trooper Barbara Stapleton
