NHP Troopers visit Elko Headstart School for Pedestrian Safety & K-9 Drug Seizure Demonstration

On Monday, October 8, 2012 Highway Patrol Troopers spent two hours educating 50-60 children on crosswalk safety and gave a K-9 demonstration on locating drugs. The Children ranged from ages 3-6, a perfect age for teaching them crosswalk safety.

Our message was simple..... “Look left, right, then left again!” During the presentation, they were taken to a side street and actually practiced crossing the street. Parents and teachers also participated with the children.

There were 47 pedestrian fatalities in the State of Nevada in 2011. Our goal is “ZERO FATALITIES”. www.zerofatalitiesnv.com

Our NHP Trooper and K-9 Thor gave an outstanding presentation on how dogs can search for drugs. The demonstration included hiding drug training items for NHP K-9 Thor to find. The children and teachers were able to see K9 Thor at work!!
