Media Release

47 Graduates of the Nevada Department of Public Safety Academy to Receive Their Badges on Thursday, December 19, 2013 in Carson City

What: On Thursday, December 19, 2013, forty seven of Nevada's newest law enforcement officers will graduate from the Nevada Department of Public Safety's training academy in Carson City. After spending almost six months learning the fundamental skills to serve as state troopers, Parole and Probation officers, and Capital Police officers, these men and women of DPS Academy Class #68 will recite the official oath of office to serve and protect the State of Nevada, and will receive their badges. Twenty nine graduates will be assigned to the Highway Patrol Division, sixteen will be starting their careers in the Division of Parole & Probation, and one will join the ranks with Capitol Police. Additionally, the recently appointed chief of the Department of Public Safety Investigation Division, Patrick Conmay, attended this academy to earn his Nevada certificate.

When: Thursday, December 19, 2013

Where: Carson City Community Center

Time: 11:00 a.m.

Address: 851 E. William St., Carson City, NV 89701

Key Note Speaker: Honorable Lidia S. Stiglich, District Judge, Second Judicial District Court

Oath Administered by: Judge Lidia S. Stiglich

Additionally, the following command staff from the Nevada Department of Public Safety will be attending:

DPS Director James M. Wright

Parole and Probation Chief Bernie Curtis

Capitol Police Chief Jerome Tushbant

Nevada Highway Patrol Major Dennis Osborn
