Carson City Man Killed in Fatal Motorcycle Accident on SR 341

On Saturday, March 2, 2013 at approximately 1:58pm, troopers from the Nevada Highway Patrol responded to an injury crash involving a motorcycle and a passenger vehicle on SR341, above the lookout (approximately 5 miles south of the junction with US 395).

The preliminary crash investigation details reveal a motorcycle (sport bike) traveling northbound on SR341 towards Reno passed a silver Subaru Outback traveling in the same direction. The motorcycle passed the Subaru while in a no passing zone. The motorcycle struck the left side of the Subaru and the rider was ejected. The 24 year old male from Carson City was transported to RENOWN Medical Center by Care Flight where he died as a result of his injuries. The motorcycle rider is identified as Kyle Banko, of Carson City, NV.

The occupants in the Subaru, 28 year old female from Gardnerville, NV and her two young children were not injured from the collision. The driver of the Subaru is identified as Jaimie Givens; the children were identified as 4 year old Ivy, and 3 month old Embree. The highway was closed for approximately 30 minutes while the rider was being treated at the scene and for Care Flight to land. Traffic was routed around the accident in the southbound travel lane while the accident was investigated. The highway was completely opened at 6:26pm.

This crash is being investigated by the Nevada Highway Patrol's Major Accident Investigation Team (M.A.I.T.). If you have any information regarding this accident, please contact Trooper Scott Morron, #300 at 775-689-4623, or the DPS communication center at 775-687-0400.
