Nevada Department of Public Safety - Division of Parole and Probation Conducts Safer Streets-Phase II Operation

RENO/ SPARKS: Officers from the Nevada Department of Public Safety – Division of Parole and Probation (DPS/NPP) Intensive Supervision, House Arrest and Gang Unit in partnership with the US Marshal's Fugitive Apprehension Task Force and officers from the Regional Gang Unit, conducted Phase II of Operation Safer Streets on Wednesday November 13, 2013. The mission of the operation was to conduct home contacts on high risk offenders who require intensive supervision and/or electronic monitoring. Additionally, in partnership with the US Marshal's Task Force attempt to locate offenders identified as fugitives and offenders with active warrants.

As a result of Phase II of Operation Safer Streets, six offenders are in custody for violating conditions of their supervision. Additionally twenty-five offenders were contacted at their residences or in the community and were found to be in compliance with their supervision conditions.

Overall the second phase of the operation was a great success. Phase I of Operation Safer Streets was conducted September 14, 2013. Both operations are examples of collaborative efforts between local, state and federal law enforcement agencies working together to make the Reno community safer.
