One Person Dies and Another Injured after Vehicle Rollover 40 Miles East of Fallon.

On Wednesday, May 21, 2014 around 10:15 a.m., Troopers from the Nevada Highway Patrol were dispatched to a single vehicle rollover accident that occurred on US50 at mile marker 63 in Churchill Co. Troopers responded to the accident with reports of a critically injured subject in the vehicle.

The crash investigation details learned so far indicate a 2005 light green Buick SUV driven by 77 year old Leslie Madsen and his wife 75 year old Mary Madsen both of Mount Dora FL was traveling eastbound on US50 when the accident occurred.

For unknown reasons Mr. Madsen lost control of the vehicle. The Buick went off the roadway where it overturned. Mrs. Madsen sustained critical injuries and was pronounced deceased at the scene of the accident.

Mr. Madsen received non-life threatening injuries to his left arm and head. He was transported from the scene to Renown Regional Medical Center via Care Flight. Mr. Madsen is fully cooperating with law enforcement officials on the accident investigation. Alcohol or controlled substances does not appear to be an issued related to the accident.

Trooper Trent Barnes of the Nevada Highway Patrol is investigating this accident. Witnesses or anyone with additional information are encouraged to contact him @ (775) 423-7946 or email at tbarnes@dps.state.nv.us regarding case number NHP- 140501838
