Promotion of NHP Lieutenant Andy McAfee to the Rank of Captain Yesterday at the NHP office in Reno

The Nevada Highway Patrol is pleased to announce the promotion of NHP Lieutenant Andy McAfee to the rank of Captain which took place yesterday Monday May 5, 2014 at the NHP office building in Reno.

Lieutenant McAfee has served with the Department for over 20 years and joined the Nevada Highway Patrol as a Trooper in January of 1994 where his first duty station was Winnemucca. He transferred to Elko in 2000 then to Carson City in 2002. In March 2003, he was promoted to the rank of Sergeant and supervised troopers in Reno and background investigators in Carson City. After a 2 year assignment in NHP personnel, he transferred to the DPS Training Division in Carson City where he promoted to the rank of Lieutenant in January 2006. Lieutenant McAfee left the Training Division in 2009, returning to NHP, working out of Reno as an operations commander since that time.

Captain Andy McAfee will be assigned to the Nevada Highway Patrol-Northern Command West area out of Reno where he will oversee the daily operations of all traffic functions and personnel in the Reno, Carson City, and Tahoe areas. Captain McAfee is replacing newly promoted Major Susan Aller-Schilling, the Deputy Chief of NHP's entire Northern Command group.
