Seven New Highway Patrol Troopers Assigned to Work Rural Nevada Highways

On Monday, July 14, 2014 seven new NHP troopers received their equipment and patrol vehicles after completing 27 weeks of academy training.

The Nevada Highway Patrol Division is proud to welcome these new troopers to rural Nevada. For a 16 week period the troopers will be teamed up with Public Safety Officers to obtain on the job training and learn additional responsibilities of a Nevada State Trooper. After that training, they will work on their own patrolling Nevada roadways and assisting the public

These Troopers will be stationed in Elko, Battle Mountain, Winnemucca, and Lovelock.
