Traffic Delays Anticipated for Carson City Deputy Carl Howell's Funeral Procession From Carson City Nevada to Downtown Reno Nevada

On August 20, 2015 from 9:00 a.m. to approximately 10:30 a.m., the Funeral Procession for Fallen Carson City Deputy Carl Howell will commence. This Procession will begin at the Carson City Sheriff's Office and end at the Reno Events Center on the corner of east 4th St and N. Center St. in downtown Reno.

Residents can expect delays on northbound IR580 with all northbound on ramps closed as the procession from Carson City approaches. The same will occur on IR80 westbound, with traffic westbound at the bowl being stopped between Rock Blvd and IR580 for the Procession to make its way to the Center St. westbound off ramp. During this time, residents are advised to utilize surface streets or alternate routes. These ramp closures are expected to be short in nature however it will cause delays.

A large amount of traffic is expected in conjunction with this event and it is encouraged for the attending public to use the available downtown parking.

The Reno Events Center will open its doors for seating at approximately 9:30 am.

The Nevada Highway Patrol wants to say thank you to our Northern Nevada family during this time and appreciates the residents understanding.
