Media Release

Nevada Highway Patrol is proud to announce new Public Information Officer for Northern Nevada

The Nevada Highway Patrol is proud to announce the appointment of its newest Public Information Officer, Trooper Duncan Dauber. Trooper Dauber will be the PIO for northwestern portion of Nevada, covering from the Reno/Sparks and Carson City areas, south to Tonopah, and east to Fallon and Lovelock. Trooper Dauber is replacing Trooper Dave Gibson, who has accepted a position as the Public Information Officer for the Nevada Department of Public Safety.

Trooper Dauber is an 8 year veteran with the Nevada Highway Patrol, and comes to the position from our motorcycle officer program. Trooper Dauber has been an active part of our D.R.I.V.E. program as well as the Driver's Edge course. We look forward to having Trooper Dauber as our Public Information Officer. He is eager, motivated and energetic and will do a great job working with the media.
