Nevada Department of Public Safety Division of Parole and Probation Conducts Operation Compliance - Las Vegas

Las Vegas, Nev.- Officers from the Nevada Department of Public Safety – Division of Parole and Probation, Southern Command conducted Operation Compliance – Las Vegas from April 30 to May 3, 2018.

The goal for this operation was to confirm compliance with residential registration requirements by conducting compliance checks of known sex offenders currently on parole and/or probation, as well as offenders under Lifetime Supervision, who were provided with amended Lifetime Supervision conditions. The focus of Operation Compliance – Las Vegas was placed on making home contacts and/or verifying addresses through contact with family members, roommates, neighbors and/or leasing offices.

During this operation, the Division attempted to confirm residential registration compliance for 502 sex offenders and Lifetime Supervision offenders with the Nevada Division of Parole and Probation in the Southern Command.

The Division was successful in confirming 311 offender residences with an additional 133 attempts made. Out of the 502 offender residence contacts, 58 offenders were found to not be in compliance. Should the Division not be able to make contact with these offenders and confirm their compliance with registration, the process of filing new charges will be initiated.
