Reno Most Wanted Fugitive Captured

Reno, Nev. - The Nevada Parole and Probation (NPP) Division of the Nevada Department of Public Safety featured Michelle Martin as a most wanted fugitive on January 29, 2018.

Martin was wanted for Parole Violation after absconding her supervision, with an instant offense of Kidnapping 2nd Degree, and Possession of a Stolen Vehicle.

On March 15, 2018, Deputies and Task Force Officers with The United States Marshals Service, Pacific Southwest Regional Fugitive Task Force, along with Detectives from the Regional Repeat Offender Program, and Regional Sex Offender Notification Unit located Martin in Reno, and took her into custody without incident.
